

Workshop for a Common Data Format for Electronic Voting Systems

National Institute of Standards and Technology

Building 101 Lecture Room D

October 29-30, 2009

Thursday, October 29

9:00 AM: Opening Remarks

- Cita M. Furlani, Director, NIST Information Technology Laboratory

9:15 AM: Goals, Overview, and Background Information

- John Wack, NIST
- Representative from the Election Assistance Commission (EAC)

9:45 AM: Panel 1 - Election Official and State Experiences with Common Data Formats

- Paul Miller, Voting Systems Manager, State of Washington, Office of the Secretary of State
- Lowell Finley, Deputy Secretary, Voting Systems Technology & Policy, California

Break

- Paul Lux, Supervisor of Elections, Okaloosa County, Florida
- Paul Stenbjorn, Information Services Manager, Virginia State Board of Elections
- Scott Hilkert, Managing Principal and COO, Catalyst Consulting Group, Inc.
- Neal McBurnett, Consultant, ElectionAudits

Noon–1PM: Lunch

1:00 PM: Panel 2 - Common Data Format Research

- Andrea Mascher, The University of Iowa
- Sharon Laskowski, NIST
- David Flater, NIST
- John Sebes, Co-Director, Open Source Digital Voting Foundation
- Kim Brace, Election Data Services

Break

4:00 PM: Panel 3 - OASIS Election Markup Language (EML) Overview

- John McCarthy, Verified Voting
- John Borrás (via phone), Chair of OASIS E & VS Technical Committee
- David Webber, OASIS / Open Voting Solutions Inc.

5:30 PM: Adjourn

Friday, October 30th

9:00 AM: Panel 4 - Manufacturer and Integrator Panel Discussion

- Duncan Buell, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, University of South Carolina
- Ed Smith, Dominion
- Eric Coomer, Sequoia
- Parker Abercrombie, Open Voting Consortium
- Daemmon Hughes, Overseas Vote Foundation
- Aaron Strauss, Voting Information Project

Break

10:30 AM: Requirements Roundtable Discussion

Noon–1PM: Lunch

1:00 PM: Next Steps

2:30 PM: Adjourn