

Melissa Neuman

Policy Analyst, Budget Review Division, Office of Management and Budget

Melissa Neuman is a policy analyst in the Budget Analysis Branch in the Budget Review Division of the Office of Management and Budget. Her responsibilities at OMB include tracking, estimation, and drafting of Administration proposals to amend authorizing statutes and the Internal Revenue Code; implementation of budget enforcement mechanisms; and 75-year projections of current policy deficits.

Ms. Neuman is the Immediate Past-President of the American Association for Budget and Program Analysis, having served as President from 2013-2016 and as a member of the board of directors since 2010. She is also an adjunct professor of public financial management at the George Washington University's Trachtenberg School of Public Policy and Public Administration. Ms. Neuman holds an MPA in Public Finance and Policy Analysis from the Indiana University School of Public and Environmental Affairs, and a BA in Economics from Kansas State University.