STANDARD REFERENCE MATERIALS TERMS and CONDITIONS

Authority - The National Institute of Standards and Technology provides Standard Reference Materials as stated in 15 USC 272(b)(2), which authorizes NIST to develop, maintain, and retain custody of national standards of measurement, and provide the means and methods for making measurement consistent with those standards; and 272(c)(6), which authorizes NIST to prepare, certify, and sell standard reference materials for use in ensuring the accuracy of chemical analyses and measurements of physical and other properties of materials.

Amendments or Changes to Existing Quote - Any changes to an existing quote will be treated as an amendment and a new quote will be issued. Some examples include but are not limited to the following:

- Changes or additions to the SRM/RM (s) on the quote;
- Cost changes (increase or decrease) to the total amount on the quote

Contracts and Signed Statements - As an agency of the United States Federal Government, Department of Commerce, the National Institute of Standards and Technology attests solely to the provisions described here. Receipt of orders by NIST does not imply acceptance of any provisions set forth in the order that are contrary to the policy, practice, or regulations of NIST or the U.S. Government. In general, NIST will not sign any affidavits, acknowledgment forms, or other documents that may be required by any domestic or foreign entity for policy governing procurement of goods and services. These terms and conditions supersede any conflicting and/or additional terms and conditions included in any purchase request or other document submitted to request NIST Standard Reference Materials. In ordering NIST Standard References Materials, the customer is agreeing to these Terms and Conditions which are also available at <http://www.nist.gov/srm/ordering.cfm#Terms>.

Shipping - Refer to <http://www.nist.gov/srm/ordering.cfm#shipment> and/or SRM certificate for shipping details for each SRM ordered. Customers are responsible for all custom duties and import fees.

Returns - Refer to <http://www.nist.gov/srm/ordering.cfm#Returns> for information regarding Returns.

Invoices - NIST is a federal government agency under the U.S. Department of Commerce; therefore, NIST has to follow the payment process directed by the U.S. Department of Treasury.
